More than a wedding day

At The Anglesey Barn, your celebration isn't rushed into a single afternoon. It's a chance to gather everyone you love for an unforgettable three-day experience on the coast of Anglesey.

From welcome drinks as guests arrive, to dancing long into the evening, beach walks the next morning and breakfast together before everyone heads home, every part of your wedding has space to be enjoyed.

From intimate celebrations of 60 to larger weddings of up to 150 day guests, with space to welcome an additional 70 guests for the evening. The Anglesey Barn offers the flexibility to make your celebration your own.

The Setting

Moelfre, Anglesey

Perched above the beautiful shores of Lligwy Beach, The Anglesey Barn is surrounded by one of the most spectacular coastlines in North Wales.

The sea becomes part of your wedding wherever you are. During your ceremony, from your top table, on the terrace with a glass in hand, or while slipping away to the beach together for a few quiet moments as newlyweds.

It feels private, peaceful and a world away, yet is easily reached by family and friends travelling from across the UK.

The Venue

Restored Dutch Barn

Inspired by the timeless shape of a Dutch barn, The Anglesey Barn combines contemporary architecture with warm, welcoming interiors.

From the ceremony room, with the only retractable roof at a wedding venue in North Wales, to the elegant reception space and expansive terrace overlooking the coast, every space has been designed to flow effortlessly throughout your day.

Exclusive to you and your guests, The Anglesey Barn offers the flexibility to create a celebration that feels completely personal for up to 150 day guests.

The Open Roof Terrace

With uninterrupted sea views and the only retractable ceremony roof at a wedding venue in North Wales, the Open Roof Terrace is designed for unforgettable ceremonies.

The roof can be opened or closed right up until the moment you say ‘I do’, giving you the freedom of an outdoor ceremony with the reassurance that the Anglesey weather never has to dictate your plans.

The Barn

Designed for unforgettable celebrations, The Barn is where you’ll share your wedding breakfast, raise a toast and celebrate into the evening, all framed by panoramic sea views through floor-to-ceiling glass.

Its soaring curved roof creates an impressive sense of space, while warm timber finishes and natural light make it equally suited to intimate celebrations and larger weddings.

Outdoor Patio

Flowing seamlessly from the celebration space, the Outdoor Patio invites guests outside to enjoy the fresh sea air and views across the Anglesey coastline.

It’s a natural extension of the celebrations throughout the day, from drinks in the sunshine to a few quieter moments as the sun begins to set, with plenty of space for guests to gather and enjoy the surroundings.

A Green Venue

Designed with sustainability in mind, The Anglesey Barn is powered by solar panels that generate clean electricity, supported by an air source heat pump and energy-efficient wet underfloor heating throughout the venue.

These features were considered from the very beginning, helping us create a more energy-efficient venue without compromising on comfort or design, sustainability has been thoughtfully built into the space and how it operates.

Make it yours

Designed around your vision

No two weddings at The Anglesey Barn are ever the same. With a choice of long or round tables, the space can be arranged to suit the celebration you have in mind, from statement florals and elegant dining to relaxed sharing feasts and more intimate gatherings. Your wedding breakfast is one of the moments everyone remembers. That's why we work exclusively with our trusted catering partner, Cheeky Chilli, a multi award-winning catering company and proud winner of North West Caterer of the Year at the English Wedding Awards for two consecutive years.

From the first canapé to the final course, it's all designed to create a memorable dining experience that brings everyone together around the table.

It's a relaxed, flexible approach, shaped entirely around you and your guests.

Whatever your vision, the menu will be tailored to complement your celebration, with every detail carefully considered to reflect your style.

Every celebration is different, so we don't believe in one-size-fits-all drinks packages.
